The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Nineteenth Day of July last, to permit, for the Space of Three Months, to commence from the Twenty-third Day of the said Month of July, the Importation in Foreign Ships of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), on the Duties specified in the said Order; And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for and during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the Twenty-third Day of October next, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool (except Cotton Wool), in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and that on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Monarch, off Boulogne, the 3d Instant.

S I R,

THEIR Lordships are aware that my Attention has, for some Time past, been directed to the Object of ascertaining the most effectual Mode for annoying the Enemy's Flotillas at their Anchorages in Front of their Ports, under Protection of their Land Batteries.

Having, on the Afternoon of the 1st Instant, arrived at this Anchorage, and finding the Weather promising to be favourable, and about One Hundred and Fifty of the Flotilla on the Outside of the Pier, I resolved to make an Experiment, on a limited Scale, of the Means of Attack which had been provided.

The final Arrangements for this Purpose were made on the Morning of Yesterday. The Officers named below* were put in Charge of the principal Vessels which at this Time were to be used. The Armed Launches, and other Boats of the Squadron, were appointed to accompany and protect them. The Castor, Greyhound, and some smaller Vessels were directed to take up an advanced and convenient Anchorage for covering the Retreat, giving Protection to Men who might be wounded, and Boats that might be crippled, and for towing off the Boats in general, in the Event of the Wind freshening and blowing upon the Coast.

Captains—Macleod, of the Sulphur.
Jackson, of the Autumn.
Edwards, of the Fury.
Collard, of the Raillleur.
Searle, of the Helder Defence Ship.

Lieutenants—Stewart, of the Monarch.
Lowry, of the Leopard.
Payne, of the Immortalité.
Templer, of the Sulphur.

Midshipman—Mr. Bartholomew, of the Inflexible.

Captains Winthrop, of the Ardent, and Owen, of the Immortalité, most zealously and usefully superintended the Operations from the Southward, and the Honorable Captain Blackwood, of the Euryalus, from the Northward. KEITH.

The Operation commenced at a Quarter past Nine o'Clock last Evening, and terminated at a Quarter past Four this Morning, during which Time several Vessels, prepared for the Purpose, were exploded amongst, or very close to the Flotilla; but on account of the very great Distance at which they lay from each other, no very extensive Injury seems to have been sustained, although it is evident that there has been very considerable Confusion among them, and that two of the Brigs and several of the smaller Vessels appear to be missing since Yesterday at the Close of Day. I have great Satisfaction in reporting, that, notwithstanding a very heavy Discharge of Shells, Shot, and Musketry was kept up by the Enemy throughout the Night, no Casualty whatever, on our Part, has been sustained. The Enemy made no Attempt to oppose their rowing Boats to ours.

Their Lordships will not expect that, at the present Moment, I am to enter much into Detail; but I think it my Duty to state to them my Conviction that, in the Event of any great Accumulation of the Enemy's Force in their Roadsteads, an extensive and combined Operation of a similar Nature will hold forth a reasonable Prospect of a successful Result.

The Conduct of the Officers and Men, who have been employed on this Occasion, deserves my highest Commendation: I cannot more forcibly impress their Merits upon their Lordships' Attention, than by remarking, that the Service was undertaken, not only in the Face of, but immediately under, the whole Line of the Enemy's Land Batteries, and their Field Artillery and Musketry upon the Coast, but also under that of upwards of One Hundred and Fifty armed Vessels, ranged round the inner Side of the Bay; and that the Officers and Men who could so deliberately and resolutely advance into the Midst of the Flotilla, under such Circumstances, must be considered worthy of being entrusted with the Performance of any Service, however difficult or dangerous it may appear to be, and consequently to be highly deserving of their Lordships' Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

William Marsden, Esq.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit you a Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Harding Shaw, commanding His Majesty's Brig the Spider, acquainting me with his having, on the 11th Ultimo, captured La Conception French Privateer, mounting Two Brass Guns, and manned with Forty-seven Men, which you will please to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for their Information.

I am, &c.

His Majesty's Brig Spider, Alicata Roads,

My Lord, 12th July 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that I Yesterday fell in with and captured La Conception French Privateer, mounting Two Brass

Guns and Forty-seven Men, Alicata bearing E. N. E. Three Leagues; fitted out from Ajacia, in Corfica, and sailed from Girgenti Yesterday Morning; have sent her into Malta, and sent on Shore here Thirty-three of the Prisoners. She has made no Capture since her leaving Corfica, which has been about a Month.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of another Letter from the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Victory, at Sea, 12th August 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH I transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter from Captain Donnelly, of His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, with Copy of one to him from Lieutenant Thompson, of the said Ship, detailing the Destruction of several of the Enemy's Coasting Vessels; the Importance of this Service may be but little, but the determined Bravery of Lieutenants Thompson, Parker, Lumley, and Moore, and the Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines employed under them could not be exceeded. I am concerned to observe that Lieutenant Lumley has been obliged to suffer Amputation at the Shoulder Joint, but I have much Pleasure in saying, that this fine young Man is fast recovering; his Sufferings, I am sure, will meet their Lordships' Consideration.

I am, &c.

NELSON & BRONTE.

His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, Hieres Bay, July 11, 1804.

MY LORD,

LAST Night we attacked about a Dozen of the Enemy's Vessels at La Vandour, in this Bay, with the Boats of the Narcissus, Seahorse, and Maidstone, commanded by Lieutenants Hyde Parker, J. R. Lumley, and Ogle Moore, the whole under the Orders of Mr. John Thompson, First Lieutenant of this Ship, who, with his gallant Companions, boarded and destroyed almost the whole, under a prodigious and incessant Fire of Great Guns and Musketry, as well from the Vessels as from a Battery and the Houses of the Town, close to which they were hauled in and well secured.

I refer your Lordship to the inclosed Letter from Lieut Thompson for an Account of that Affair; and I beg to add, that it is impossible for me to express the raise due to that intrepid Officer and the Men, as well as Officers of every Description under his Command, whose Conduct I viewed with Admiration. Herewith I also transmit a List of the Killed and Wounded, which I am extremely grieved to say amounts to Twenty-seven.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ROSS DONNELLY.

The Right Hon. Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B.

Duke of Bronte, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Narcissus, Hieres Bay, July 11, 1804.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to report the Proceedings of the Detachment of Boats you did me the Honor to place under my Command last Night, whose Conduct and Gallantry I cannot sufficiently praise.

The Attack commenced at Midnight, under a tremendous Fire of Grape-Shot and Musketry; notwithstanding which we succeeded in boarding and firing most of the Enemy's Vessels, consisting of Eleven or Twelve Settees, chiefly laden. The Enemy were fully prepared, and had taken every Precaution to secure them, they being moored Head and Stern, with their Bars on the Beach, and completely propt together under Water; we however towed one out in spite of their heavy and incessant Fire.

This Service, I am sorry to say, has cost us several valuable Lives. Among the Killed I have to regret the Loss of that very promising young Man W. Roche, Midshipman of this Ship, who was shot in firing of the Vessels; and Lieutenant Lumley, Messrs. Bedingsfield, Watt, Victor, and Mansell, Midshipmen on board, wounded; I fear the former mortally; together with several Seamen and Marines severely.

To Lieutenants Lumley and Moore of the Seahorse and Maidstone I feel greatly indebted for the steady and well-directed Fire kept up from the Launches of those Ships under their Command; also to Lieutenant Parker of this Ship, for his very able Support in boarding and destroying the Enemy's Vessels. Indeed my warmest Thanks are due to every Officer, Petty Officer, Seaman and Marine employed on this Occasion.

I am, &c. JOHN THOMPSON.

Ross Donnelly, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Narcissus.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a Threatening Letter addressed to "Lord Ailesbury, Tottenham Park," and signed "a Firm Believer," was put into the Post-Office, at Newbury, in the Month of August last, and received by his Lordship, containing the most scurrilous Language and Threats against his Life, in consequence of an Objection on the Part of his Lordship to the Erection of a Methodist Chapel in his Parish of Great Bedwin.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port Royal, the 26th of August 1804.

SIR,

YOU will herewith receive, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copies of Two Letters, reciting the Capture of the Hirondelle and Vautour French Privateers by His Majesty's Ships Tartar and Fortunée; the former of which, I trust, their Lordships will think with me does high Honor to the Officers and Crews of the Tartar's Boats, for their undaunted Spirit and Perseverance.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Ship Tartar, off St. Domingo, August 1, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, Yesterday Morning at Dawn, standing into Leeward of Saona, a small Sail was discovered from the Mast-Heads, to which I immediately gave Chase, keeping as close to Leeward of the Island as possible, in order to prevent her Escape that Way, knowing the Channel between that Island (Saona) and St. Domingo to be very narrow and intricate even for small Vessels. About Seven the Chase was made out to be a Schooner full of Men, using her Sweeps and every Means possible to get off; from which Circumstance supposing her to be a Privateer, and perceiving her Intention of attempting to escape through the beforementioned Channel, I made all possible Sail, and at Eight o'Clock got her within Reach of the Guns, which, from the short Tacks I was obliged to make, was prevented from using to that Advantage and Effect I could have wished without losing Ground, therefore, though several Shot went over, and through her Sails, she still persevered in beating to Windward until she had advanced near the Centre of the Channel, where, finding it impossible to proceed further, she came to an Anchor under a Reef of Rocks, at which Time, (Ten in the Forenoon,) having beat the Ship up into Six Fathoms Water, but deeming it imprudent to proceed further, and finding it would be almost impossible to destroy the Vessel with the great Guns, not being able to anchor, or to bring the Broadside to bear to Advantage, from the short Tacks we were obliged to make, without Hazard to the Ship; yet, judging it of Importance to take or destroy the Vessel by some Means or other, I immediately hoisted Three Boats out, and sent them manned and armed under the Direction of Lieutenant Mullah, (Second Lieutenant,) assisted by Lieutenant Lockyer (Third), with several Midshipmen, all Volunteers on the Occasion.

The Instant the Boat put off from the Ship, the Schooner hoisted French Colours, fired a Gun, and warped her Broadside towards them; as the Boats advanced, the Privateer commenced firing Grape from her great Guns, and on their nearer Approach opened a Fire of Musketry; yet notwithstanding, and a strong Sea Breeze against the Boats, Lieutenant Mullah, in the most intrepid and gallant Manner possible, pulled up in the Face of several Discharges of Grape, and a heavy Fire of Musketry from Fifty Men drawn up round the Deck, boarded and carried her. It is impossible to speak too highly, or sufficiently to express my Sense of the Bravery and intrepid Conduct of Lieutenants Mullah and Lockyer, as well as the Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines employed under them; considering the Disadvantage under which they were obliged to attack, and the Preparation the Enemy had made for Defence, being nearly Noon Day; nor can I too much commend the Spirit and Alacrity with which they volunteered their Services on the Occasion, as well as the Whole of the Ship's Company.

I am happy to add, that only Two Men were wounded, one Seaman and one Marine (badly); the French lost Nine killed and Six wounded, beside Three missing, supposed to have been drowned in attempting to swim on Shore - the Wounded I sent to St. Domingo by a Flag of Truce this Morning. The Remainder I keep on board, there being no English Prisoners to exchange in lieu. The Privateer proves to be the Hirondelle, Captain La Place, with Ten Four-Pounders and Fifty Men, and Two Days out from St. Domingo. She had run most of the last War, and all the present, frequently chased, but from her fast sailing always escaped.

I am, &c.

KEITH MAXWELL.

Vice-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B.
Esq. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Fortunée, off Altavella,
 SIR, August 10, 1804

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that running down the South Side of Domingo with His Majesty's Ship under my Command, disguised agreeable to your Directions, on the 10th Instant, off Altavella, I was chased by Le Vantour Felucca Privateer, mounting One Nine-Pounder Gun, and carrying Fifty-four Men, which approaching nearly within Gun-Shot before they discovered their Mistake, was captured after Two Hours' Chase.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. VANSITTART.

Copy of another Letter from Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port-Royal the 30th of August 1804.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT you herewith, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Marshall, of His Majesty's Brig Pelican, relating the Capture of the National Schooner La Laurette; and am, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Sloop Pelican, at Sea,
 SIR, August 24, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the Morning of the 23d Instant, Cape Naze bearing N. by E. Six or Seven Leagues, a strange Sail was discovered in the N. E. to which I immediately gave Chase, and have the Satisfaction to inform you, that after a Chase of Six Hours came up with and captured her, after discharging several Broadsides; she proves to be the National Schooner La Laurette, pierced for Sixteen Guns, but had only mounted Four Twelve-Pound Carronades and One long traversing Nine-Pounder, on Midships, and Forty Men, commanded by Citoyen de Blouch, Lieutenant de Vaiffeau; had sailed from the City of St. Domingo the Night previous to her Capture, bound to St. Jago for the express Purpose of completing her Crew to One Hundred Men.

(Signed) JNO. MARSHALL.

Admiralty-Office. October 16, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Sir James Saumarez, K. B. Rear Admiral of the White, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Diomedé, Guernsey-Road, the 13th Instant.

SIR,

HAVING placed Captain Henniker, of His Majesty's Sloop Albacore, under the Orders of Commodore Duke de Bouillon, with Directions to use his utmost Endeavours to intercept any of the Enemy's Flotilla passing along the French Coast, I had the Satisfaction, last Evening, to receive an Account of his having pursued, on the 8th Instant, Five Gun Luggers, and driven them on the Rocks off Grofnez on the following Day.

Captain Henniker anchored as near them as was consistent with the Safety of the Ship, and kept up a heavy Fire upon them with Round and Grape-Shot until they were covered by the Surf, and abandoned by their People, who appear to have been very numerous, and among them several were distinguished as Soldiers by their Clothing.

Great Praise is due to Captain Henniker for this spirited and gallant Attack within a few Hundred Yards of the French Coast, and under a heavy Fire from the Enemy's Batteries and Vessels: Great Commendation is also due to the Officers and Crew of the Albacore, who appear to have acted in the most determined Manner, and to have preserved the most exact Discipline, in so intricate a Situation, with the Wind directly on the Shore, and close to a heavy Surf; the Albacore was hulled in several Places, and the Main and Main Topmast wounded, but I am happy to find has suffered no Loss in Men.

Herewith I enclose the Commodore's Letter, reporting the Particulars of this Action; and am, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

His Majesty's Ship Severn,
 SIR, Jersey, Oct. 10, 1804.

MY Hopes, as expressed to you in my Letter of the 8th Inst. are happily realized by the Success that attended the Albacore's Pursuit of the Vessels that were perceived creeping along the Shores of Normandy on that Day, and I have much Pleasure in transmitting you the following Detail of the Circumstance: Captain Henniker obeyed the Signal with admirable Promptitude, slipped his Cable, and made every Sail for the opposite Shore, on which the Wind directly blew, and although the Assault and Cutter returned, not having discovered the Enemy, and lost the Albacore in the Haze, the latter succeeded in intercepting near the Grofnez de Flamanville, Five Luggers of the Enemy that appear to have been Gun Vessels of the Second Class, with Bow Guns, and to force them to anchor close to the Surf, under the Cover of a Battery to the Southward of Grofnez; the Wind dead on the Shore, and a Lee Tide induced Captain Henniker to take a Position to await the Return of Day to attack them with some Prospect of Success, which he effected with infinite Gallantry Yesterday Morning at Ten o'Clock, when taking the Advantage of the Weather Tide, he stood in the Albacore, under a heavy Fire from the Battery and Gun Vessels, and anchored close to the latter, within Two Cables Length of the Surf, with Springs on his Cable, and at Eleven o'Clock opened a smart and well-directed Fire of Round and Grape Shot, until the Enemy's Vessels were all driven on Shore, and lay Broadside-to in a heavy Surf, that broke with great Violence over them; their Men, of which they appear to have been full, landing in great Confusion through the Surf, and scrambling up the Beach half accoutered, their White Belts being distinctly seen from the Albacore; from the Number that were seen borne by others up the Strand and Sand-Hills, Captain Henniker thinks there were many killed and wounded; indeed there is every Reason to hope their Discomfiture was complete, from the very judicious Position Captain Henniker had taken; the Tide falling, and the Wind continuing to blow strong on the Shore, and the Albacore's Anchor dragging, he was obliged to abandon the Anchor and Spring, and haul off, the Main and Main Topmast shot through, the Ship hulled in several Places by the Enemy's Shot, and the Rigging much cut, though, happily, not a Man was touched. Captain Henniker speaks in Terms of high Approbation of the Support afforded him by Lieutenants Trotter and George, and the rest of the Officers and Crew of the Ship; and particularly commends the Readiness and determined Manner in which Mr. Wybert, the Pilot, took and placed the Ship in the Situation to effect the Service that Captain Henniker himself (I have Pleasure in bearing Testimony) put so much Zeal to execute, so much that I know not which to commend most; his Promptitude and Activity in the Pursuit, or gallant Spirit in the Dash to follow and effect, amidst the Surf on a Lee Shore, and in very threatening Weather. It is the Opinion of all the Officers of the Ship that the Whole of the Five Vessels are irrecoverably lost in the high Surf that still continues to lash the Shore.

I have, &c.

D'AUVERGNE, Duke de Bouillon.

Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, K. B.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the White, &c. &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ville de Paris, in Torbay, the 20th of October 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copies of the several Communications transmitted to me from Captain Moore, of the Indefatigable, giving an Account of his Proceedings in the Execution of the Service he was sent upon, in which he has, in Company with the Medusa, Lively, and Amphion, succeeded in detaining the Spanish Frigates therein named.

Admiral Montagu communicated to me the Arrival of the Lively at Spithead, on the 17th, with the Fama.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR. Indefatigable, at Sea, Oct. 6, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that I have executed the Service you did me the Honor to charge me with.

On the Morning of the 29th of September, the Indefatigable got off Cadiz; on the 30th, we fell in with the Medusa; Captain Gore having informed me the Amphion was in the Strait's Mouth, and that the Triumph was off Gibraltar, and that Sir Robert Barlow meant to go into Cadiz for the Trade there, on his way to England; I thought fit to send the Medusa to apprise Sir Robert Barlow of the Nature of my Order, that he might then judge whether or not he should go into Cadiz, and I directed Captain Gore to rejoin me with the Amphion as soon as possible off Cape St. Mary. On the 2d Instant, I was joined by the Lively, and on the 3d, by the Medusa and Amphion; the latter having communicated, what I thought necessary, to Sir Robert Barlow.

Yesterday Morning, Cape St. Mary bearing N. E. Nine Leagues, the Medusa made the Signal for Four Sail W. by S. I made the Signal for a general Chace; at Eight A. M. discovered them to be Four large Spanish Frigates which formed the Line of Battle a-head on our Approach, and continued to steer in for Cadiz, the Van Ship carrying a Broad Pendant, and the Ship next to her a Rear-

Admiral's Flag; Captain Gore being the headmost Ship, placed the Medusa on the Weather Beam of the Commodore; the Indefatigable took a similar Position alongside of the Rear-Admiral; the Amphion and Lively each taking an Opponent in the same Manner, as they came up: After hailing to make them shorten Sail, without Effect, I fired a Shot across the Rear-Admiral's Fore-Foot, on which he shortened Sail; and I sent Lieutenant Ascott, of the Indefatigable, to inform him, that my Orders were to detain his Squadron; that it was my earnest Wish to execute them without Bloodshed; but that his Determination must be made instantly: After waiting some Time, I made the Signal for the Boat, and fired a Shot a-head of the Admiral. As soon as the Officer returned with an unsatisfactory Answer, I fired another Shot a-head of the Admiral, and bore down close on his Weather-Bow; at this Moment the Admiral's Second a-stern fired into the Amphion; the Admiral fired into the Indefatigable; and I made the Signal for close Battle, which was instantly commenced with all the Alacrity and Vigour of English Sailors. In less than Ten Minutes La Mercedes, the Admiral's Second a-stern, blew up alongside the Amphion, with a tremendous Explosion. Captain Sutton having, with great Judgment, and much to my Satisfaction, placed himself to Leeward of that Ship, the Escape of the Spanish Admiral's Ship was rendered almost impossible; in less than Half an Hour she struck, as did the Opponent of the Lively. Perceiving at this Moment the Spanish Commodore was making off, and seeming to have the Heels of the Medusa, I made the Signal for the Lively to join in the Chace, having before noticed the superior Sailing of that Ship. Captain Hammond did not lose an Instant; and we had the Satisfaction, long before Sunset, to see from our Mast-Head that the only remaining Ship had surrendered to the Medusa and Lively.

As soon as our Boats had taken Possession of the Rear-Admiral, we made Sail for the floating Fragments of the unfortunate Spanish Frigate which blew up; but, except Forty taken up by the Amphion's Boats, all on board perished. This Squadron was commanded by Don Joseph Bustamante, Knight of the Order of St. James, and a Rear-Admiral. They are from Monte Video, Rio de la Plata, and, from the Information of the Captain of the Flag Ship, contained about Four Millions of Dollars, Eight Hundred Thousand of which were on board the Mercedes which blew up. Other Accounts state the Quantity of Specie to be much greater, public and private, and there is besides much valuable Merchandize on board the captured Ships. Our Loss has been very trifling. I have not yet had the Returns from the other Ships, but the Indefatigable did not lose a Man. The Spaniards suffered chiefly in their Rigging, which was our Object. The Captains of the different Ships conducted themselves so ably, that no Honor could accrue to me but the fortunate Accident of being Senior Officer.

The Zeal, Activity, and Spirit of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines of the Squadron is best evinced by the complete Manner in which they performed their Work. Lieutenants Gore, Parker, and Afcott, of the Indefatigable, and Lieutenants Haviland and Hole, of the Marines, gave me that Support which their uniform good Conduct formerly taught me to rely on. Mr. Griffith's, the Master, Conduct has my perfect Approbation. I presume to recommend, in the strongest Manner, Lieutenant John Gore, of the Indefatigable, to your Favour and Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GRAHAM MOORE.

Force of the Spanish Squadron.

La Medée, (Flag Ship)—Forty-two Guns, Eighteen Pounders, on the Main Deck, and Three Hundred Men, taken; Two Men killed and Ten wounded.

La Fama, (Commodore's Ship,)—Thirty-six Guns, Twelve Pounders, on the Main Deck, and Two Hundred and Eighty Men, taken; no Returns.

La Clara.—Thirty-six Guns, Twelve Pounders, on the Main Deck, and Three Hundred Men, taken; no Returns.

La Mercedes.—Thirty-six Guns, Twelve Pounders, on the Main Deck, and Two Hundred and Eighty Men, blew up; Second Captain and Forty Men saved.

Indefatigable, Plymouth Sound,

October 19, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE to inform you of the Arrival at this Port, of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, with the Amphion, which I thought proper to order to England for the Security of the Two Spanish Frigates La Medée and La Clara, which we have brought in with us. We have seen nothing of the Medusa and Lively, with the Spanish Frigate La Fama, since the Evening of the Action, when they parted from us. I enclose a Copy of the Account delivered to me by the Spanish Major of the Squadron, of the Treasure and Cargo on board the Four Ships.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) GRAHAM MOORE.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Ramsgate, the 24th Instant.

S I R,

I HEREWITH transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship the Immortalité, to Rear-Admiral Louis, detailing the Particulars of an Action between that Ship, the Orestes Sloop, and Basilisk Gun-Brig, and a Division of the Enemy's Flotilla passing, Yesterday, from the Eastward towards Boulogne.

It will no doubt afford their Lordships much Satisfaction to observe the very favourable Report which Captain Owen makes on the Conduct of His Majesty's Officers and Men; and equal Regret to remark the Extent of the Loss that has been sustained, and that the Shallowness of the Water alone prevented that active and enterprising Officer from cutting any Part of this Division off from the Shore.

I enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded on board the Immortalité; and have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

SIR,

BEING off Cape Grisnez, and proceeding to my Station before Boulogne, I this Afternoon, about half-past Three, discovered a Division of the Enemy's Vessels, consisting of Three Praam Ships, Seven Brigs, and Fifteen Luggers, which soon after bore up to the Westward, keeping close to the Beach, under Cover of their Batteries, and accompanied by Horse Artillery, making the best of their Way to shelter themselves within the Banc de Laine.

By making all Sail to Windward I was enabled to close the Praams (which kept together) about a Quarter before Five, and to open my Fire upon them within the Distance of Grape-Shot, under the high Land of Cape Blanc Nez, the Enemy still pushing to the Westward, and returning at last a brisk Fire, but it latterly slackened much:—This running Fight continued till near Six, when, having been thrice obliged to sheer out into deeper Water, we found ourselves still within the End of the Banc de Laine, where the falling Tide prevented us from following them, and obliged us to haul off.

Our little Calais Squadron was to Windward following the Enemy, of which the Orestes and Basilisk joined me in the first of the Attack, giving me every Support and Assistance during the Whole of the Action; their Commanders gave me much Satisfaction in conducting them. The other Vessels of that Squadron did not get within Gun-shot; Captain Brown will of course make his Report to Vice-Admiral Holloway; but I spoke him in passing, and was pleased to learn he had sustained no Damage.

I endeavoured to close the Enemy again as they passed from behind the Banc to round Cape Grisnez, and did get Sight of a few of the Vessels; but though we passed within half Gun-Shot of the Cape, the Enemy were so effectually screened from our Sight by the dark Shade of the Land, that I could do nothing, and am unable to say whether the whole Number got down to Boulogne, or whether (as I suspect) a Part of them anchored in Whitland Bay.

Lieutenant Payne, though ill, was upon Deck, and afforded me, as he has done in every Instance, the greatest Aid; and it is not possible for me to speak too highly of the Conduct of every Officer and every Man; each, in his Station, gave me the fullest Satisfaction: but it gives me serious Pain to add, that, of these brave Fellows, One was killed and Ten wounded (Three mortally), besides the Third Lieutenant, Charles Buirough Strong, of whose Assistance I was deprived before a Shot was fired by us, and whose Loss I feel the more, as Two Years' Service with me in this Ship has fully proved to me his Worth; his Wounds, however, are not dangerous.

My Thanks are due to Mr. Henry Thornton, our Pilot, for his steady, attentive good Conduct and Alacrity, and regretting that the Nature of the Coast in that Part where we closed the Enemy enabled them to skulk from our further Pursuit.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.

Rear-Admiral Louis, &c. &c. &c.

P. S. From the Manner in which our Grape-Shot covered the Enemy's Vessels their Loss in Men must have been very great.—I never saw Guns pointed better or so coolly.

List of the killed and wounded Men on board His Majesty's Ship the Immortalité, in Action with a Division of the Enemy's Vessels off Cape Blanc Nez, 23d of October 1804.

Killed.—James Wilson, Seaman.

Wounded.—Charles Buirough Strong, Third Lieutenant; George Barker (since dead), John Dawal (since dead), William Terrent (since dead), David Brown, William Hamilton, Peter Humes, John Watson, and William Robinson, Seamen; James Allen and William Gubbett, Privates of Marines. (Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.

Admiralty-Office, October 27, 1804.

Copy of another Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Ramsgate, the 25th Instant.

SIR,

I AM sorry to acquaint their Lordships, that His Majesty's Gun Brig the Conflict has been run on Shore, on the Enemy's Coast, and I fear has fallen into their Possession, while endeavouring, under the Orders of Captain Hancock, of the Cruiser, to obstruct the Passage of a Division of the Enemy's Flotilla, proceeding from Ostend to the Westward on the Night of the 23d.

I herewith transmit the Particulars of that unfortunate Event, detailed in Captain Hancock's Letter to me, and Lieutenant Ormsby's Letter to him, from which it appears, that Captain Hancock, and Lieutenants Ormsby and Forbes, as well as the other Officers and Men employed on this Occasion, have manifested great Gallantry and Perseverance, and that their Failure has only been occasioned by the Construction of the Enemy's Vessels admitting of their passing closer to the Shore than ours. I have no Doubt that the Case of Acting Lieutenant Garland will interest their Lordships much.

I am, &c. KEITH.

Cruiser, off Nieuport, at Anchor, Six A.M.

MY LORD, Wednesday 24th October 1804.

I BEG to acquaint your Lordship, that Part of the Enemy's Flotilla, consisting of Two Praam Ships, one bearing the Flag of Chief of Division, and both under French Colours, with Eighteen Schuyts, put to Sea Yesterday Afternoon from Ostend at Four P. M. to run to the Westward, just at the Moment His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, with the Gun-Brigs and Cutters named in the Margin *. were standing in to reconnoitre that Port.

As soon as I could give the necessary Directions to the Gun-Brigs to put themselves under my Orders, &c. I made sail in Pursuit of the headmost Praam Ship, which I brought to close Action at Fifteen Minutes past Five, in which I was very handsomely supported by the Gun-Brigs and Cutters, and continued it with great apparent Effect, till Thirty-five Minutes past Six, the Enemy's Fire being entirely silenced, and for the last Half Hour only keeping up a faint Fire of Musketry.

The Tide was however falling so rapidly, and the Enemy kept in such shoal Water that it was not possible to close with him, to take that Advantage which, by our Fire, we had so manifestly over him.

It falling also dark, and being in less than Three Fathoms Water, I considered it proper to haul off and anchor, having no Person on board acquainted with the Shoals to the Westward of Ostend.

It is with extreme Concern, I acquaint your Lordship, that in Lieutenant Ormsby's gallant Zeal to close with the Enemy, agreeably to my Orders, the Conflict took the Ground, and the Tide left her so rapidly that every Endeavour he used to get her afloat was unsuccessful, and he was under the Necessity of quitting her with his People.

The Darkness that came on before the Close of the Action, prevented me from being aware of this unfortunate Accident till Lieutenant Ormsby came on board the Cruiser with his People after we had anchored.

I immediately ordered him with his People back to the Conflict, to use every Exertion to get her afloat when the Tide made, or, in Event his not being able to succeed, to destroy her, being then in Hopes that the Enemy were not aware of her Situation.

I sent the Admiral Mitchell Cutter to protect and assist him; and the Cruiser's Boats were also sent under Mr. Fothergill, Master of the Cruiser, who very commendably volunteered his Services.

The Ebb Tide prevented the Boats getting in for a considerable Time; when they got near they had the Mortification to find the Conflict high and dry on the Beach, and in complete Possession of the Enemy.

His Boats accordingly returned to the Cruiser at two A. M. making their Report of the State of the Conflict.

As I considered it my Duty to make every Attempt to save the King's Ship, or at least prevent her falling into the Hands of the Enemy, I determined to attack her with the two Cutters, by laying her on board at high Water, when I knew the Cutters could get close alongside of her. They were accordingly sent, having, in Addition to their own Crews, Lieutenant Ormsby, and the Whole of the Conflict's Ship's Company, to which I added ten picked Men and Half the Marines from the Cruiser, under the Orders of Lieutenant A. Garland, Acting Lieutenant of the Cruiser, the Whole being under the Command of Lieutenant Forbes of the Griffin Cutter.

Lieutenant Forbes proceeded with great Gallantry and Spirit to put his Orders in Execution, but found, on arriving close to her, the Enemy had winded the Head of the Conflict in Shore, with her Head-sails full to forge her on the Beach, and had besides hove her close upon the Sand, as the Tide rose, it not being therefore possible to carry her in this Situation, he returned to the Cruiser.

It is with great Pain I have to relate to your Lordship the Cutter received very considerable Damage in standing in, from the Howitzers and Field Artillery which the Enemy had collected on the Beach during the Night, by which one Man was killed and seven wounded, amongst the latter, much have I to regret, that Lieutenant A. Garland, Acting Lieutenant of the Cruiser, has lost his right Leg very high up, who was with admirable Gallantry, with his Party, getting into the Boats to board the Enemy, even under the discouraging Circumstances of her being still aground when he received the Wound.

I hope it will not be thought intrusive, although it has not been my Fortune to meet with that Success which the gallant Exertions of the Officers and Men under my Command entitled them to, but only to relate Misfortune, if, in Justice to their Merits, I beg to convey to your Lordship the strongest Testimony of the Zeal and Gallantry with which they closed with the Enemy.

I must also intrude on your Lordship to recommend to your Protection (if he survives his Wound) Lieutenant A. Garland, Acting Lieutenant of the Cruiser, who has served his Time and passed, and whose general good Conduct as an Officer, since he has been with me, entitles him to my warmest Approbation, independent of his late Misfortune, which I trust will plead my Excuse for thus trespassing on your Lordship.

I enclose the Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Ormsby to me, giving the Particulars of the unfortunate Loss of the Conflict, which leaves me nothing to add, but to repeat my Admiration of his Conduct whilst engaged with the Praam, and to regret the sad Accident by which that Vessel is got into the Possession of the Enemy.

I have directed Lieutenant Hinton, with the Gun Brigs, to watch the Conflict; and, should they succeed in getting her afloat, to attack her; but, from the Appearance of the Weather, and the Wind being to the Northward, I am of opinion she will go to Pieces on the Beach.

I herewith enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded. None of the Gun-Brigs have suffered in their Masts, &c. nor has the Cruiser received any material Injury, except her Sails, standing and running Rigging, which are much cut.

One of the Praams was observed by the Boats to be high and dry on the Beach at Ten o'Clock this Morning, about Three Miles to the Westward of the Conflict, but she got off, I apprehend, at high Water, and proceeded to the Westward.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN HANCOCK.

Lieutenant Abraham Garland, of the Cruiser.

Cruizer, off Nieuport, October 24, 1804.

SIR, Six A. M.

IT is with extreme Mortification that I have to acquaint you with the Loss of His Majesty's Gun-Brig Conflict; for in a few Minutes after you hailed me, desiring me to keep as close as possible to the Praam, she grounded: the Man in the Star-board Chains having Two Fathoms, but having the Three foremost Breechings at that Time carried away, I had stepped forward to hurry them in fitting others, when the Pilot quitted his Post at the Helm and went below; my first Care was engaging the Praam, which was passing Inside of us, and as soon as she passed I started all the Water, and threw every Thing overboard that was practicable to lighten her but finding she sued very fast, having only Four Feet alongside, and another Praam coming up fast on the outer Side of us, I judged it most adviseable to hoist the Boats out and save the People, as just at that Time seeing the Cruizer's Lights, and thinking that if I did not catch her immediately, the Whole of the People would be sacrificed, as the Boats would be too crowded to get any Distance, and I had Hopes that when the Flood made, I might, with the Assistance I might get from the Squadron, be enabled to get her off; I am sorry the Result has been so very contrary to my Hopes and Wishes. Lieutenant Forbes, I presume, has acquainted you with the Particulars. Our Loss in the Evening was one Man badly wounded, one slightly; in the Night one killed, and three wounded. The Officers and Crew in general behaved as brave Men.

Admiralty-Office, October 30, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Rathborne, of His Majesty's Ship the Santa Margarita, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in Plymouth-Sound, the 28th Instant.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose you Copies of Two Letters I have transmitted to the Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, and have brought in Sixty-four Prisoners that belonged to the Gun-Vessels captured by the Dispatch the Morning of the 24th Instant.

I have not fallen in with the Conquest, or would have brought in the Prisoners taken by her.

I am, &c. WILSON RATHBORNE.

SIR,

His Majesty's Ship Santa Margarita, off Ushant, Oct. 26, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that at Daylight Yesterday Morning, being in Company with the Hazard, I was joined by the Dispatch (that had separated from me in a short Gale) and Two French Gun-Vessels out of Four, captured the Morning before. For the Particulars of which I beg Leave to refer to Captain Hawkins's Letter.

I consider it fortunate the Vessels taken by the Dispatch were destroyed, as it was hardly possible such Vessels (although new and very fine of the Sort) could have been kept above Water in such Weather as we had last Night and this Morning.

I have, &c.

(Signed) WILSON RATHBORNE.

SIR,

His Majesty's Sloop Dispatch, October 25, 1804.

I BEG to inform you, that, on the Morning of the 24th Instant, at Daylight, Point du Ras bearing N. E. distant Five or Six Leagues, I discovered Two strange Sail on the Weather Bow, to which I gave Chase; and about Eight A.M. came up with the Sternmost, who struck, gave the Brig a lift up in the Wind, dropped the Jolly Boat to take Possession, and continued after the other, whom we captured about Nine. They proved to be Two National Gun-Vessels, Nos. 345 and 353, armed with Two Brass Guns, one Thirty-two and One Six-Pounder, and Twenty Soldiers each, from Odierne bound to Brest, but had been blown off the Land the Day before. About One the Conquest joined us, and soon after we discovered Two more of them; sent the Conquest after one, and made Sail after the other. At Three came up with her, when she proved to be a Gun-Vessel, No. 371, armed with one Brass Thirty-two and one Six-Pounder, and Twenty-two Soldiers. Not thinking them safe to send to England, I therefore took the Guns out and sunk them.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) EDM. HAWKINS.

CLARA RESINDRING, late Clara Moss, who resided at C Weissenberg, on the Rhine, in the Province of, Alsace Sister of John Moss, late of Madras, a Captain in the Service of His Highness the Nabob of Arcot, or in Case of her Decease, her next of Kin or legal Representative, is requested to apply to Mr. Dann, Solicitor, Old Broad-Street, London, who is authorized to communicate Information beneficial to her Interests.

THE 10th of July 1804, a Cause was tried before Lord Ellenborough, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's-Bench, and a Special Jury of Merchants, at Guildhall, London, between B. H. Inglish, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, the only Proprietor of that excellent Medicine called Dr. ANDERSON'S, or, THE TRUE SCOTS PILLS, Plaintiff, and John Tyce, of Fleet-Market, Defendant. The Cause of Action was the Defendant's selling a Sort of Scots Pills, wrapped in Papers representing them to be made by Mr. James Inglish, one of the Plaintiff's Ancestors, and as coming from the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand, the Plaintiff's Dwelling-House.—Mr. Erskine opened the Cause for the Plaintiff, Mr. Inglish, with great Judgment and Ability, stating the high Reputation this Medicine has been held in for upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Years, ever since the Invention of it by that skilful and eminent Man Dr. Patrick Anderson, Physician to King Charles the Fifth; and observing on the high Esteem it has been held in by many of the first Physicians since his Time, several of whom have given Mr. Inglish's Family Certificates of its Excellence, recommending it as a most useful Family Medicine.—Mr. Newbery, of St. Paul's Church-Yard, bore Testimony of the great Virtues of this Medicine as prepared by the Plaintiff, and of its high Reputation with the Public; and also of the extensive Sale which he, as a Vender of Genuine Medicines, had for this in particular. Other respectable Persons in the same Way of Business gave Evidence to the same Effect: And it being clearly proved that the Plaintiff and his Ancestors, descended from Dr. Anderson, were possessed of the Genuine and only True Receipt for the preparing this Medicine, and Mr. Inglish's Object in prosecuting the Action being to secure to the Public a valuable Medicine unadulterated, and to prevent Imposition in future, and not to obtain a Sum of Money as Damages to himself, he, upon the Suggestion of the Defendant's Counsel, consented to withdraw a Juror, the Court making the following Order:

ENGLISH against TYCE.

It is ordered by the Court, by and with the Consent of the Plaintiff and Defendant, being both present in Court, their Counsel and Attornies, that the last Juror sworn and impanelled in this Cause be withdrawn out of the Panel; the Defendant undertaking and engaging not to utter, vend, or sell, by himself, or any other on his Behalf, the Medicine in question in this Cause, called "Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills," or "Dr. Anderson's, or the famous Scots Pills," in any Wrapper, Cover, Paper, or Inclosure whatsoever, which shall denote, signify, or express, or bear any Mark to indicate that the same are Pills made or prepared by James Inglish, or any Person of the Name of Inglish, or which were ever uttered, or came from, or sold at the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand: And lastly it is ordered, by and with such Consent as aforesaid, that this Order be made a Rule of the said Court of our Lord the King before the King himself.

THO. LOWTEN.

BY THE COURT.

There was another Cause which came on to be tried the same Day, at the Suit of Mr. Inglish, against Isaac Silcock, of Tottenham-Court-Road, Vender of Medicines, for the like Injury, which was disposed of by a similar Rule of Court.

In consequence of the daily Complaints made at Mr. Inglish's House, in the Strand, of the pernicious Effects resulting from the Use of Scots Pills which are supposed to have been prepared there and vended from thence, but which are in fact Counterfeits, Mr. Inglish has discovered many other Persons who have for some Time past been in the Habit of imposing upon the Public and him, by selling such Trash; and Mr. Inglish had directed his Solicitor to commence Actions against several of those Persons; but upon the Intercession of their Friends, and their solemnly promising not to continue a Practice so deceitful and injurious, he has been induced to forbear proceeding against them.

To caution the Public against purchasing, and all Druggists, Chymists, and Venders of Medicines in particular, against selling spurious Scots Pills, Mr. Inglish has thought it expedient to publish to the World the foregoing established Facts and Authorities, through the Medium of the London Gazette, and many of the Town and Country Newspapers, and by Means of Hand-Bills; and having so done, he hereby gives Notice, that he will certainly bring Actions against all Persons who shall hereafter utter or vend any Pills as or for Scots Pills prepared by him, or coming from his House, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, which are not so.

And, as a further Caution against Counterfeits, Mr. Inglish acquaints the Public, that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant His Royal Authority directing his Arms to be enrolled in the Royal College, and they are as follows, viz.

And every Box is sealed with his Arms and Motto as above; and the Honorable Commissioners of His Majesty's Stamp Duties have ordered, that the Stamp wrapped round the Box shall contain the following Words, "B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church," printed with Red Ink, and by a late Act of Parliament the Forgery of the Stamp is Death.

Terms of Sale.—The Pills are sold Retail, at 1s. each Box, Stamp Duty included.

The Box is wrapped in a printed Bill, describing the various Complaints to which the Pills are peculiarly serviceable; and in some Cases they are fully established to be a specific and sovereign Remedy; and all the Wrappers have Mr. Inglish's Arms printed on them, and are signed "B. H. Inglish."

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Victory, at Sea, the 14th October 1804.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit you a Letter from Captain Pearie, of His Majesty's Sloop Haleyon, dated the 23d of September last, giving an Account of his having captured L'Esperance French Privateer, on the 20th of that Month, which you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for their Information; and at the same Time acquaint their Lordships, that Captain Pearie's Exertions on the present, and several former Occasions, for the Protection of our Trade, and Destruction of the Enemy's Privateers in the Vicinity of Gibraltar, very justly entitles him to my warmest Approbation.

I am, &c. NELSON and BRONTE.

His Majesty's Sloop Haleyon, off Gibraltar-My Lord, Bay, September 23, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that, on the 20th Instant, being on my Way from this Place to Tangier, I discovered several Sail to the Westward, one a Settee boarding a Brig; I made all Sail possible, with a very light Air from the Eastward; and it is with Pleasure I inform your Lordship, after Eight Hours' Chase, incessantly pulling, and Boats towing against a strong Current, we got within Gun-shot. After exchanging our Bow, and the her Stern Chasers, (now and then a Broad-side,) she struck her Colours, and proved to be L'Esperance French Privateer of Nice, Captain Joseph Lebonis, pierced for Twelve Guns, but only Ten mounted, of different Calibres, from Twenty-fours to Twelves; had on board Fifty-four Men, but, owing to its being quite dark, Twenty-two made their escape in Boats before we took Possession. I am happy to say we had not any one hurt. Our Rigging and Sails sustained a little Damage. L'Esperance had Two wounded, and several Shot in her Hull, Masts, and Yards. I beg Leave to mention to your Lordship she is the same Privateer that captured the Swift Cutter, Fortitude Merchant Brig, and Three Letters of Marque belonging to Gibraltar; she is the largest and best equipped of the Kind I have yet seen. My Officers and Ship's Company on this, as well as on similar Occasions, acted with that Zeal and Perseverance that deserves my warmest Praise. I have, &c. H. W. PEARSE.

Duke of Bronté, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Centaur, Barbadoes, Sept. 1, 1804.

SIR,

IN sending you Captain Shipley's Account of the Boats of His Majesty's Ship Centaur, cutting Two Privateer Schooners out of Basseterre, Guadaloupe, it scarcely needs Comment on the great Gallantry of Lieutenant Sibley, the other Officers and Men, and they deserve my warmest Praise for the cool and persevering Conduct they exhibited under so severe a Fire from the Enemy's numerous Batteries; and the Judgment of Captain Shipley in sending them at a proper Moment, aided the successful Termination of this Business without much Loss.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

*His Majesty's Ship Centaur, off
Guadaloupe, July 31, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE to acquaint you, that last Night, Lieutenants Sibley, Outridge, and Pearce, and Mr. Lloyd, Midshipman, with Four Boats, accompanied by a Proportion of Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, all Volunteers from His Majesty's Ship under my Command, made a successful and gallant Attack on the Enemy's Privateers in Basseterre Roads, Guadaloupe, bringing out, without an Air of Wind, a Schooner, Name unknown, of Two Guns, and L'Elizabeth, mounting Six Guns, pierced for Twelve, and having Sixty-five Men on Board, most of which were either killed, drowned, or swam on Shore, under a dreadful Fire of Grape and Musquetry, from the numerous Batteries and Troops which lined the Beach.

Lieutenant Sibley's Spirit and Judgment, in conducting the Attack, I cannot too much commend; and he speaks in the highest Terms, of the brave Officers and Men, under his Orders. L'Elizabeth is esteemed the fastest sailing Privateer out of Guadaloupe, and has been uncommonly fortunate this War. Though I am under the Necessity of enclosing a List of the killed and wounded in the Boats, I must remark, it is smaller than might reasonably have been expected. His Majesty's Ship has recaptured the Elizabeth of Liverpool, from the Coast of Africa, taken by the Decidé; and detained, on Suspicion, the Grecian Ship St. Nicholas, with Produce, from Guadaloupe. I am, &c.

(Signed) CONWAY SHIPLEY.

To Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

List of Killed and Wounded.

Robert McKan, Seaman, killed.

Mr. Blythe, Master's-Mate, slightly wounded.

Peter Maryan, James Thompson, Isaac Wolfe, James Daniel, Seamen, badly wounded.

Two of the Enemy brought out wounded.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Hancock, of His Majesty's Sloop the Cruizer, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in Yarmouth Roads, the 17th Instant.

SIR,

HEREWITH enclose, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, my Letter of this Day's Date, to Lord Keith, acquainting him with my having captured the French Brig Privateer Le Contre Amiral Magon, commanded by Captain Blackeman, from Dunkirk.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN HANCOCK.

Cruizer, at Sea, off Yarmouth, Ten A. M.

MY LORD. October 17, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that being last Night, at Nine P. M., with His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, and the Gun-Brigs, Bold and Ann, and Florence Cutter, close in with Ostend, in Five Fathoms' Water, which Station I had taken from the Moment the Wind came to the Eastward, to follow with every possible Efficacy and Energy your Lordship's Instructions in the important Duty entrusted to me, of watching the Enemy's Movements at that Port and Flushing, we observed a strange Sail standing in Shore, which, on discovering us, wore and made all Sail, steering at first with the Wind abaft the Beam; we immediately made all Sail in Chace, which continued during the whole Night, in which the Stranger displayed much Skill and Ability in all his Manœuvres, and tried us on every Point of Sailing, with various Success; he sometimes gaining on us, and we in our Turn nearing him, till Five A. M. in which Time (Eight Hours) we had run Ninety-seven Miles, by the Log: During the latter Part of the Chace the Wind freshened considerably; but this gave us not the Advantage I expected, as he preserved his Distance till a Quarter before Five A. M., when both his Topmasts went away; he then attempted a masterly Manœuvre to escape, which the Haze, the Darkness of the Morning, and the Lee Tide, gave him a fair Prospect of succeeding in, by clearing up his remaining Sails, and coming instantly to an Anchor, although in Twenty-five Fathoms Water, in hopes we should either pass him unperceived, or get to Leeward. Although I was not aware, to the full Extent, of this Accident and Manœuvre, I never lost Sight of him; and at the Time it happened I observed we were nearing him so very fast, that I had begun to reduce the Sail; but, as we were going then more than Eleven Knots, I had but a few Minutes' Time before I was up with him, and the Wind blowing so fresh as to risk the Loss of all our Masts, if I attempted to haul to Wind with the Sail I had then set, I was under the Necessity of passing him, which I did, however, within Hail, and to Windward, and not receiving any Answer, except that he was from Philadelphia, in bad English, I ordered Three Guns to be fired into him. I then plainly discovered him to be a large Armed Brig with Nine Ports on 2 Side; having in a few Minutes taken Two Reefs in the Topsails, and cleared the Decks of wrecked Spars and Split Sails, we tacked, and ranged up within Ten Yards of his Lee-Quarter, he having cut his Cable, and again attempted to make sail, when, just as I was on the Point of hailing him, preparatory to giving him our Broadside, he called out and begged us not to fire, as he had struck.

On boarding him I was pleased to find my Opinion confirmed that I had captured Captain Blauckman, so well known during the late and present Wars in these Seas, having received Information he was at Sea in a Brig. The Vessel he commanded, proved to be Le Contre Amiral Magon French Privateer Brig, quite new, this being her first Cruise, pierced for Eighteen, and mounting Seventeen Guns of different Calibres, viz. Fourteen long Six-Pounders, Two Eighteen-Pound Carronades, and One long Nine-Pounder, and manned with Eighty-four Men, French, Danes, Swedes, and Americans; had been out from Dunkirk Eighteen Days, and had captured, during his Cruise, the Ship Bellarius, of Newcastle, Matthew Hunter, Master, on the 3d Instant, off Tynemouth, the Brig Scipio, Richard Robertson, Master, and the Content's Increase, George Bell, Master, both laden with Coals, off Foley Bridge on the 10th Instant; the Two former were immediately dispatched for Dunkirk, but the latter was recaptured about Two Hours after by an English Man of War Brig; she was proceeding for Dunkirk or Ostend, and had been laying-to for some Hours in the Evening waiting for Water to cross the Bank, and, I apprehend, little expected to find English Cruisers within the Stroom Sand. The Brigs and Cutters in Company who have bore up with the Cruizer in Chace were run out of Sight by Twelve A. M.

I beg to recommend to your Lordship's Notice Lieutenant J. Pearle, senior Lieutenant, Lieutenant Lusk, Second, and Mr. Lash, Master, with the whole of the Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen, and Mariners, through whose united Exertions this active and enterprising Enemy has been prevented making further Depredations, which, from his local Knowledge of our Coasts, added to the ample Means he possessed in this Brig, from her superior Sailing and Force, must have been highly detrimental to the Trade of this Country; nor can I, in Justice, omit availing myself of this Opportunity to express to your Lordship my Thanks to Johannes Whymmer, Pilot of the Cruizer, who, on this and all former Occasions, by his correct Knowledge of the Coast and Shoals, and Zeal for His Majesty's Service, has afforded me the more essential Confidence and Assistance.

I am happy to add that the Masters of the captured Vessels, as also their Crews, amounting to Twenty English Seamen, were on board the Contre Amiral Magon at the Time of Capture, and are now on board the Cruizer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN HANCOCK,

Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. &c. &c. &c.

IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes," I do hereby give Notice, that the Death of John Berkeley Burland, Esq; late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the Borough of Totness, in the County of Devon, hath been certified to me, in Writing, under the Hands of Two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Totness, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my Hand, the 20th Day of November 1804.

CHARLES ABBOTT, Speaker.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for repealing the Rates and Fares taken by licensed Hackney Coachmen, and for establishing other Rates and Fares in lieu thereof, and for explaining and amending several Laws relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs;" it was, amongst other Things enacted, That whenever the average Price of Oats made up, computed, and verified, and published in the London Gazette, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the 31st Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported, should exceed Twenty-five Shillings per Quarter;" it should be lawful for the Commissioners for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, if they should see fit, to cause an Addition to be made to the Rates and Fares in the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, mentioned and allowed to be demanded, received, and taken for the Hire of any Hackney Coach in the Proportion therein and hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, Upon every Rate or Fare amounting to Two Shillings, the additional Sum of Six Pence: Upon every Rate or Fare amounting to Four Shillings, the additional Sum of One Shilling: And so in like Manner upon every Increase of Two Shillings, or any Rate or Fare above the Rate or Fare of Four Shillings aforesaid, the additional Sum of Six Pence for every such Increase of Two Shillings: And it is by the said recited Act of the 39th and 40th Years of the Reign of His said Majesty provided, that such additional Rate or Fare shall not be demandable or payable, or paid in respect of any such Rate or Fare as aforesaid, unless such Coach shall have been taken the full Distance, or kept in waiting the full Period which such Coach might be taken or kept respectively, for such Sum of Two Shillings or Four Shillings respectively, or any such further Increase of Two Shillings as aforesaid, which additional Rates or Fares should and might be recovered in like Manner as any other Rate or Fare for the Hire of any Hackney coach might be recovered:

From Tuesday December 11, to Saturday December 15, 1804.

Admiralty-Office, December 15, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Monarch, off Ramsgate, 11th December 1804.

SIR,

DIVISIONS of the Enemy's Flotilla passing from the Eastward towards Boulogne, having frequently when pursued by His Majesty's Ships and Vessels taken Shelter in the Harbour of Calais, their Entry into which has been particularly covered and protected by the advanced Pile Battery of Fort Rouge, I considered it an Object of some Importance to effect the Destruction of that Work, and lately directed Captain Sir Home Popham, of the Antelope, amongst other Objects, to hold in View a favourable Opportunity for making this Attempt.

I now transmit, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter, and the Enclosures to which it refers, which I have received from that Officer, reporting the Result of an Assault which he directed to be made upon it early on the Morning of the 9th Instant, and from which there is Reason to conclude that the Fort has sustained material Damage; but that from the unfortunate Circumstance of its not having been possible, under the existing State of Weather and Tide, to carry up Two of the Explosion Vessels to the Point of Attack, the Injury has been far less extensive than might have been otherwise expected.

The Conduct of Lieutenant Hew Stuart, of the Monarch, on this recent Occasion, will not fail, I am sure, to excite their Lordships' Admiration and Praise. I have great Pleasure in conveying to their Lordships Captain Sir Home Popham's Testimony to his distinguished Merit, and to the zealous and active Assistance which he received from Captain Brownrigg, Lieutenant Lake, and Mr. Bartholomew.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

MY LORD, Antelope, Downs, Dec. 10, 1804.

I AVAIL myself of the first Moment of my Return to the Downs to acquaint you, that towards Noon on Saturday the 5th, the Wind promised to come to the S. E., and knowing it to be your Lordship's Intention to attack the Enemy at every favourable Point, I sent the Dart, on the Close of the Evening, to an assigned Station between Sengate and Fort Lapin, accompanied by the Sufannah Explosion Vessel and Two Carcasses, with a View of making an Assault against Fort Rouge.

Lieutenant Stuart, of the Monarch, commanded the Explosion-Vessel; Mr. Bartholomew, Acting Lieutenant of the Antelope, had the Charge of the first Carcass intended to be applied, and Captain Brownrigg requested to take the other.

Your Lordship is aware how difficult it is to ascertain the precise Injury done to the Enemy in an Enterprise of this Nature, which, in most Cases, must be undertaken in the Night: but, that you may be possessed of the best Information in that Respect, I sent the Fox Cutter, whose Master is an active intelligent Man, and well acquainted with Fort Rouge, to reconnoitre the Place as close as possible without Risk, and I annex his Report to Lieutenant Stuart's, as the clearest Account that can be given of the able and officer-like Manner in which the Sufannah was placed, and the evident Consequences of such an Application, even under Circumstances of considerable Disadvantage.

I very much regret that Mr. Bartholomew could not fetch the Port; for I am positive he would have lashed the Carcass to the Piles: he, however, very prudently returned with it to the Dart; and although something prevented the second Carcass from going off, which evidently had been striking against the Piles, from the Indention at one End, yet he recovered and brought it also on board.

I am most perfectly satisfied with the Zeal and Activity which Captain Brownrigg manifested on this Occasion; the Dart was admirably placed, and every Assistance afforded from her that could insure the Success of this Service, which must now be considered as confined to the Efforts of the Sufannah; and I take this Opportunity of most particularly recommending Lieutenant Stuart to your Lordship's Notice; which, I hope, will also be extended to Mr. Bartholomew, notwithstanding he could not fetch the Battery; and your Lordship must be alive to the enterprising Conduct of these Two Officers on a former Occasion.

I cannot conclude my Report without assuring your Lordship, that Lieutenant Lake, of the Locust Gun-Brig, who was appointed to cover the Boats, behaved in a most exemplary Manner, by keeping so close in as to draw all the Fire upon his own Vessel; and I have great satisfaction in stating, that not an Officer or Man was hurt in this Operation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) HOME POPHAM.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.

SIR, His Majesty's Ship Dart, Dec. 10, 1804.

IN pursuance of your Instructions, and according to the Arrangement you made for the Attempt on Fort Rouge only, I left this Ship at Two A. M. and proceeded in Shore with the Explosion Vessel in my Charge, until the Water shoaled to Two and a Half Fathoms, when I tacked, and stood off so as to enable me to fetch the Battery, which I did about Half-past Two, and placing her Bowsprit between the Piles, left her in that Situation. In a few Minutes I observed her swing with her Broadside to the Battery, in consequence of the Bowsprit being carried away, and as an Anchor was dropped the Instant she struck the Piles, I had not the smallest Doubt of her remaining there until the Explosion took place, which was in a few Minutes; I could not fetch the covering Brig, and as it had every Appearance of coming on to blow from the S. E. in which Quarter it was when I left the Dart, I hope you will excuse my running in the Galley to the Downs.

I have, &c.

(Signed) HEW STEWART.

Sir Home Popham, K. M. Antelope.

SIR, Fox Cutter, off Calais, Dec. 9, 1804.

ACCORDING to your Order I proceeded off Fort Rouge, and examined it very strictly. As I proceeded towards the Shore I saw a great Quantity of Plank and Timber floating, and would have picked up some, but was afraid I should lose the Tide, as I wished to examine it at low Water. In standing in I could discern a great Number of People all round the S. W. End of the Fort, and from the West Head all the Way to the Sand-Hills. I did not discover any Alteration on the East Side of the Fort; but when I got to the Westward of the Fort, I could plainly discover the most Part of it to be damaged, and the Breast-Work knocked down, and I have every Reason to believe it was very much injured, by such a Number of People being assembled there, and seeming at Work upon it.

I am, &c. (Signed) W. BLAKE.

Sir Home Popham, K. M.

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Foote, of His Majesty's Sloop the Favorite, to Captain Laroche, of His Majesty's Ship the Melpomene, at present commanding the Squadron before Havre de Grace, acquainting him with his having captured La Racrocheuse a French Privateer from St. Vallery, and driven another into that Port.

His Majesty's Ship Favorite, at Sea, December 13, 1804.

S I R,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to inform you, that I Yesterday fell in with Two French Lugger Privateers, and that after a Chace of Three Hours, I captured La Raccrocheuse, Captain Jacques Broquant, out One Day from St. Vallery en Caux, mounting Fourteen Guns, Four-Pounders, and carrying Fifty-six Men. The above Luggers had in their Possession a Brig, and were boarding a Bark, both which they quitted on my approaching them; I therefore made Signal to a Cutter in Sight, which I believe to be the Countess of Elgin, to chace the Merchant Vessels, and from the Exertions I observed her to make, I have no Doubt but she has succeeded.

The Luggers steering different Courses, the headmost one elcaped, her Name is L'Adolphe, mounting the same Number of Guns as the Capture, belongs to the same Port, where she must have returned, having thrown every Thing overboard in the Chace.

I am, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES FOOTE.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

If any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.
